

SPONSORSHIP DECK

BACKGROUND

On World Mental Health Day 2023 (WMHD), Kelly Holding Ltd. in partnership with Infinite Mindcare, hosted the first mental health symposium targeting the corporate community. The event was a resounding success as was our 2024 event, with over 200 attendees! For our 2025 event we will build on this success, utilising four large meeting spaces to be able to offer 16 sessions - including those that have been very well recieved and adding in new ones based on the last two years of research and input from our attendees and the community.

The impact of mental health challenges in the workplace continues to increase. Mental Health First Aid England (MFHA) reports that mental health issues accounted for more than half of all work-related illnesses in the UK in 2023, and that around 51% of long-term sick leave is due to stress, depression, or anxiety. In addition, one in five UK workers reported feeling unable to manage stress and pressure in the workplace while a third of managers feel out of their depth supporting their team with mental health concerns. Research from Deloitte UK also found that 64% of managers have considered quitting for a job that would better support their wellbeing. According to Forbes Health, the impact that depression and anxiety has on the global economy can be measured in $1 trillion of lost productivity each year!

Although similar data may not be readily available, it is safe to say that the workforce in the Cayman Islands is also grappling with many of these issues. On WMHD 2023, Dr. Omotayo Bernard, head of the Behavioural Health Department at the Cayman Islands Health Services Authority, revealed that the largest group accessing mental health services in 2022 was people aged 25 to 44. These are individuals in the workplace - our colleagues, managers, friends, CEOs.

It was with all these statistics in mind that the WMHD symposium was created.
